answering them*

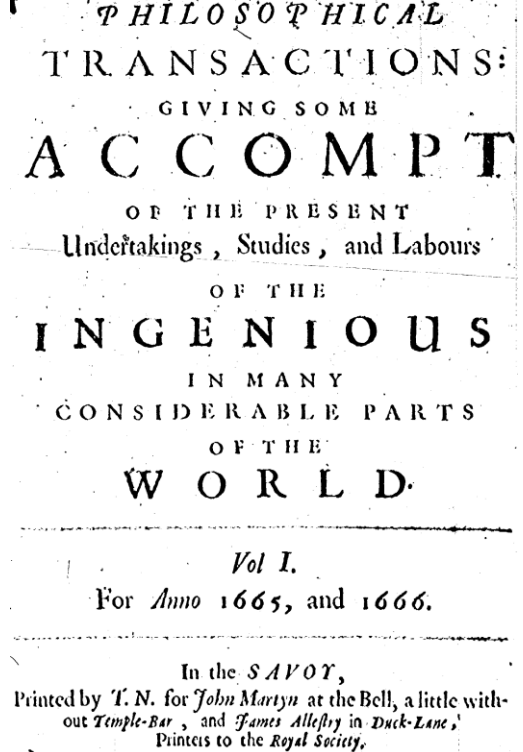

Philosophical Transactions

The oldest scientific journal (1665)

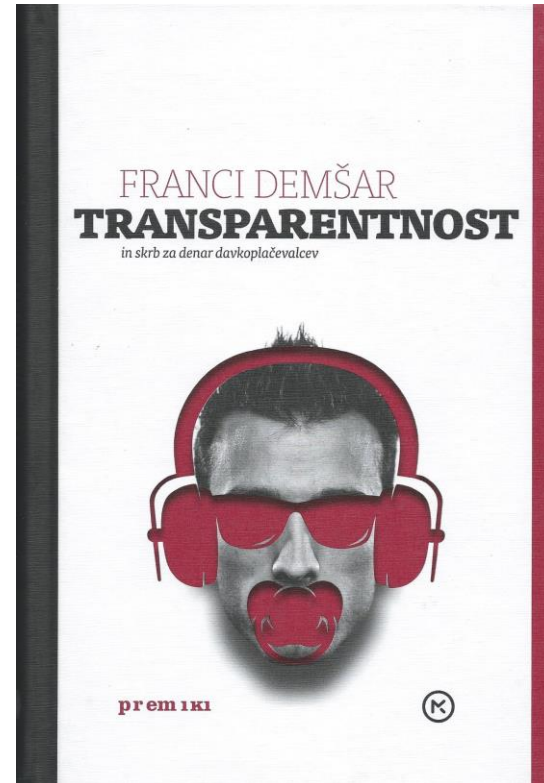

- Scientific publications need to encompass data which allow for the reproducibility of experiments and independent tracking of cited sources

Medical Essays and Observations (1731)

- Every article needs to be examined by experts before its publishing (peer review).

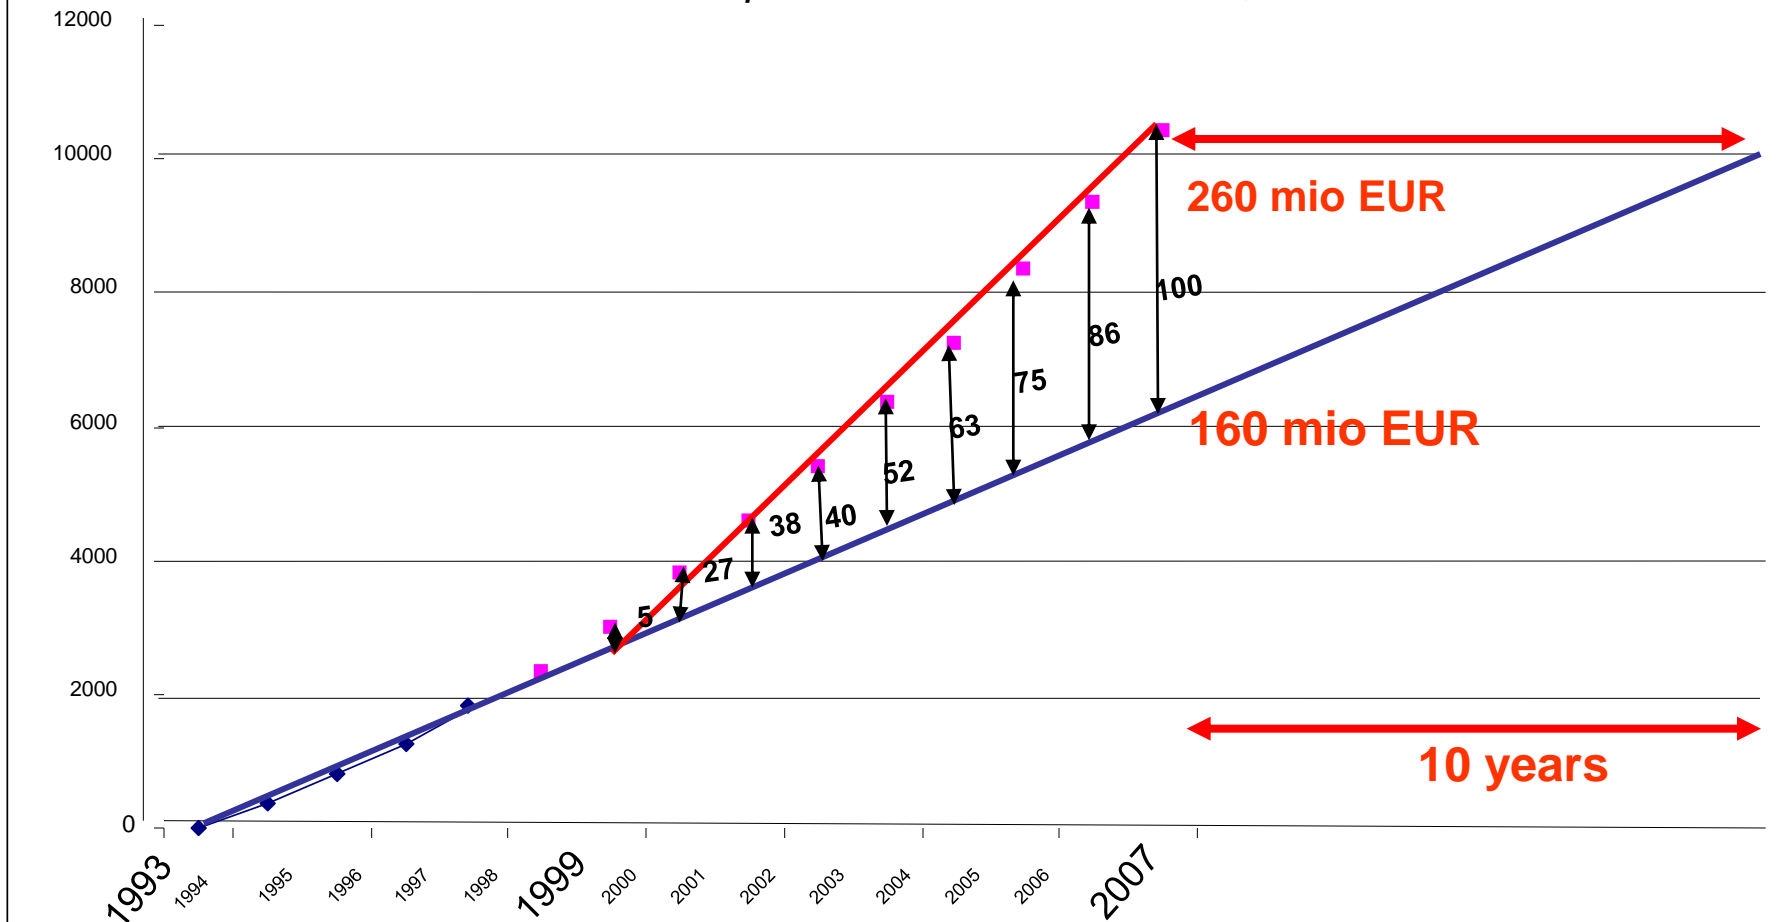

The Role of Transparency

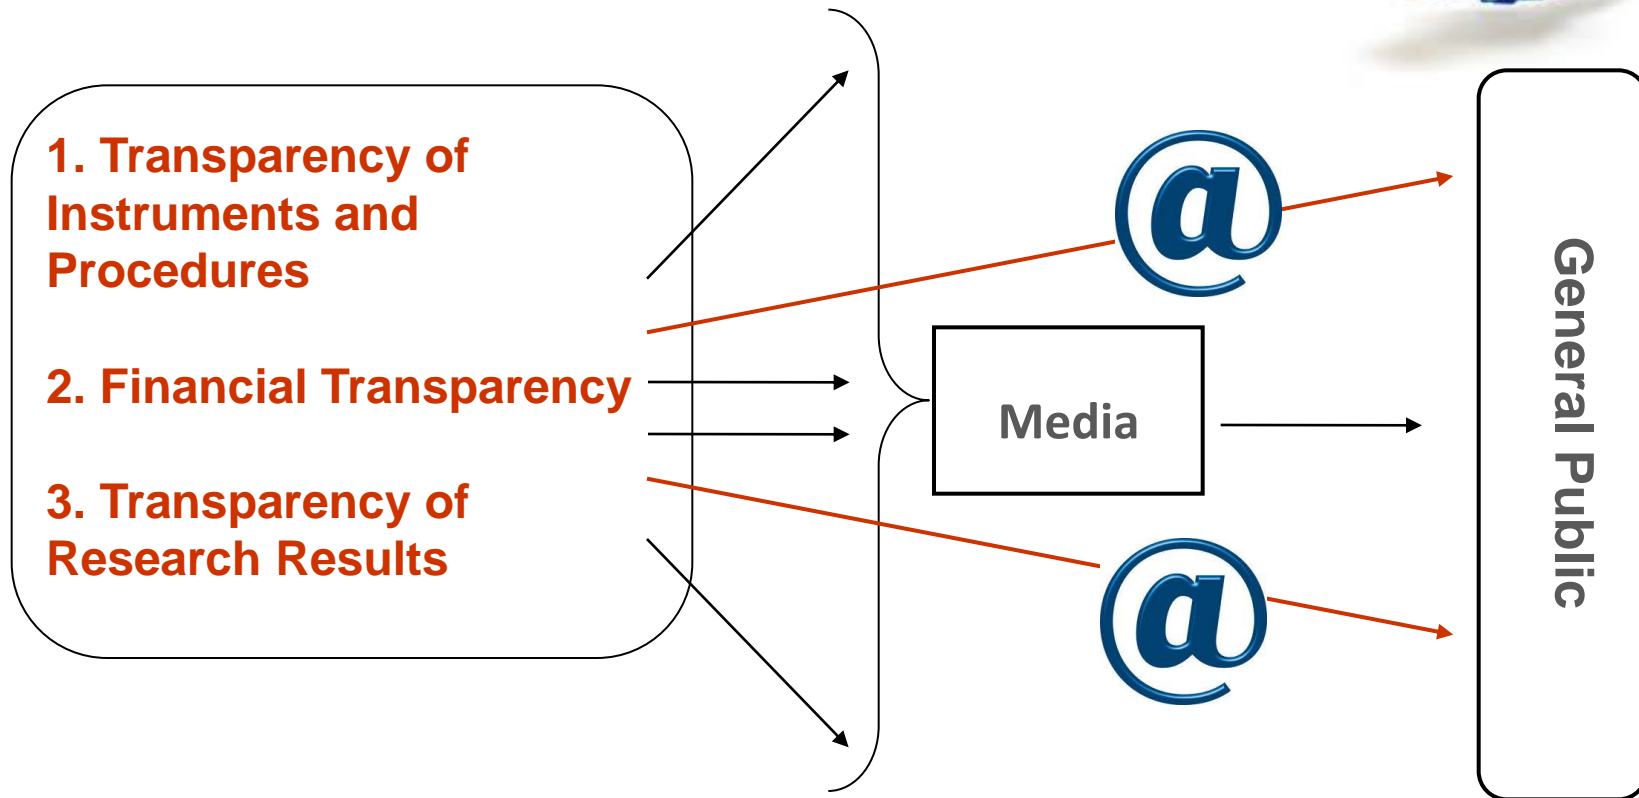

Transparency and Research Results

DEMŠAR et al, Journal of Librarianship and Information Science, 2013

Transparency Pillars

1. Transparency of Instruments and Procedures – up to 2005 -

RULES on co-financing basic, applied and postdoctoral research projects

Article 36 - National Co-ordinators

- ...

- Based on project proposal's reviews, quantitative indicators (...) and the assessment of the managerial capacity of the research team, prepared by the Agency and reviews made by national co-ordinators, national co-ordinators prepare the rankings of the project proposals, recommended for funding in individual research areas.

- ...

Official Gazette of the RS, št. 12/2005, 10. 2. 2005

Evaluation Procedures and the Conflict of Interest

- years 2003 - 2005 - 2008 -

- Comparison on successful Project Leaders (PL) at calls for proposals and those PLs who would succeed in case of using bibliometrics only

- 2003 49%
- 2005 65%
- 2008 65%
