OF THE V4+ COUNTRIES, Bratislava, 19. 6. 2019

Why store and preserve sound records?

- sound records = part of our national cultural heritage
 - various music genres
 - oral history (language, literature, traditions, knowledges)

 - we want to contribute to a complex solution of
 - digitization
 - preservation
 - accesing
- to preserve cultural heritage

What the Virtual National Phonotheque is...

- a web portal - specialised database, provides information about:
 - existence, placement and format of sound records
 - online access without any restrictions
- collection of sound records on various mediums

Virtual National Phonotheque - Brief history

- 1930s - writer Karel Čapek appealed to make a sound collection
- late 1990s - unsuccessful tenders and negotiations
- Still missing:
 - national sound institution = standards, methodology ...
 - centralised overview of sound collections
 - information overview about digitalization
- 2012 - VNF created by Moravian Library in Brno
- 2015–2017 - lack of working and financial capacity

...

Virtual National Phonotheque - Brief history

- 2018 - VNF moved to National Technical Library in Prague

Virtual National Phonotheque - Brief history

- National Technical Library missions and know-how:
 - supports projects on national level
 - supports for science and research
 - connects academic, public and private sphere
 - to provide services without barriers
 - experienced in IT technology
 - central repository, accessible by anyone
 - infrastructure exists to support a more ambitious application of VNF
 - good will 😊

Virtual National Phonotheque - vendors

- connects various metadata vendors (libraries, archives, record companies, private institutions, individuals)
 - 24 suppliers
 - about 500 000 records
 - suppliers guarantee the quality of their records
- dealing with new vendors

What the Virtual National Phonotheque is...

How it works...

- free open source software (VuFind)
- harvested data (mostly OAI-PMH), based on MARC 21
- deduplications of imported/displayed records
 - 1 record - more vendors

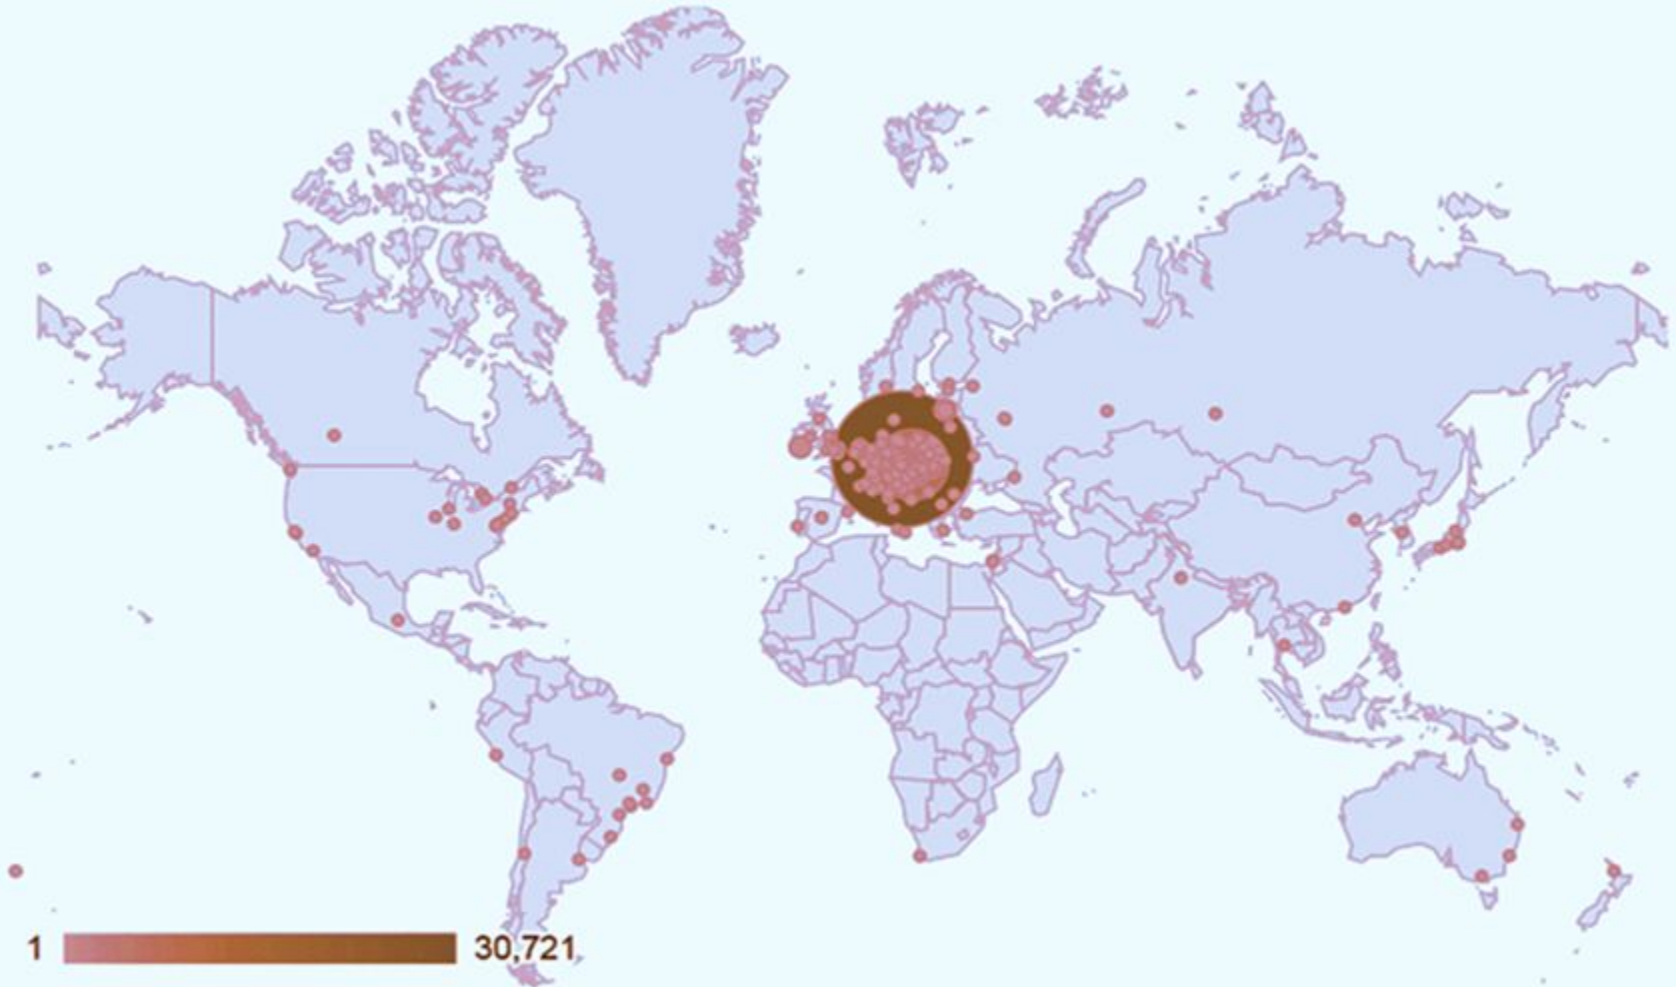

Why the VNF is unique?

- the one union catalogue of sound in the Czech Republic
- not only music, but oral histories, radio broadcasts, sound, etc.
- not only a catalogue, but a place for listening:
 - playback of selected items (in accordance with copyright!)
- enrichment of the "bibliographic" records of active lines:
 - to digitised version
 - into e-shops
 - on the owner's website
 - on other related websites

Karel Čapek calls for establishment of "...a national discotheque in every country, acquiring and preserving both national folklore and exceptional works of local composers or performers and ensembles, when recorded on gramophone records. That way, a real archive of national music in authentic and peak performance are archived, serving to promote the national art, broadcast by the radio, research etc. – certainly a desirable thing.

- example of cooperation NTL + private record company: Access to Supraphon Digital Archive

The screenshot shows the NTK website homepage. At the top right, there are logos for '09/09/19 09/09/09', 'LIB', 'chemTK', 'Czech', and 'My account'. A search bar in the center contains the text 'Search Our Collections' and a dropdown menu set to 'All'. Below the search bar, it says 'Or browse: Catalog, eBooks A-Z, eJournals A-Z, All eResources'. A red navigation bar at the bottom contains the following menu items: 'What We Have', 'Services & Support', 'Culture & Events', 'Who We Are', and 'Projects & Innovation'. A search box on the right of the navigation bar says 'Search NTK pages...'. The NTK logo and name are also visible on the left side of the page.

Registered patrons have now access to the complete digital archive of Supraphon, a Czech record label.

The archive is accessible in NTK building on all devices connected to wifi NTK (NTK-Simple) at archiv.supraphon.cz. You can also use public computers to access the archive. Earphones are available for loan at the main service desk (2nd floor).

Archive contains

- 100,000 songs
- 55,000 popular music songs
- 30,000 classical music recordings
- 8,000 folk songs
- 3,000 jazz recordings
- 5,000 recordings of the spoken word

About Supraphon

The graphic features the Supraphon logo on the left, which includes a lion and a harp. To the right is a pair of headphones connected to a Wi-Fi symbol. Below the logo, the text reads: '100 000 skladeb', '55 000 skladeb populární hudby', '30 000 nahrávek vážné hudby', '8 000 skladeb folklorních nebo dechovky', '3 000 nahrávek jazzu', and '5 000 nahrávek mluveného slova'. To the right of the headphones, it says 'WIFI NTK-Simple'.

Where we are right now

- VNF contains about 500 000 records
- 24 institutions = suppliers
- dealing with 3 new institutions to manage new metadata
- planning to improve website structure
- working on a new web design proposal
- preparing to conclude contracts with each supplier
- working on a cooperation agreement with National Museum
- starting research into metadata to find versatile solution
- developing long-term vision

What next

- expand cooperation beyond the Czech Republic
- attract partners from other countries
- create stronger work team
- share experiences, people, help each other
- exchangeable work placements, training, workshops
- take part in training the next generation of professionals
- create new job opportunities
- joint effort to preserve cultural heritage

Let's do it together!

Our questions/considerations:

- Can we inspire others to do the same?
- Can we be inspired by examples from abroad?
- Can we increase cooperation?
- How and when?
